

He was born in Prague, Czechoslovakia (now Czech Republic) on 20 April 1983.

His mother Dijana, died while giving birth to him.

His older brother, Vissarionovich, was killed by Soviet forces in 1988.

After the death of his brother, Václav and his father moved to Florida so his father could pursue the 'American Dream'. Václav's father died in 2002. He shot himself in the head in the middle of a crowded city bus.

In order to survive, he stated working at a small occult book shop. Through some lucky events he ended up buying the store from the owner, a burned out hippie who 'never left Woodstock' for $8000. Over the last 8 years of working with the occult, Václav has accumulated a great deal of knowledge in the occult. Václav has established the goal for kidnapping the Judeo-Christian god and hold him ransom.

It was also from 'Sunshine' (the stores former owner) that he picked up a love of altered states of conscious (from both drugs and special 'new age' meditation techniques.) This love has because an addiction.

First changes:

Václav first changes at 17. He remembers nothing of the event.

Vaclavs 2nd change was observed by Thomas Lancaster and resulted in his being brought to sept.

Dangerous secret: Sence Vaclav started learning Occult he has worked with demonology. In order to earn favors from demons he had to do favors for them. Due to repeated drug use he don't always remember what they were. Looking back he realizes that the demons were most likely wrym and by helping them he was serving the wrym. While he now fights the wrym he still thinks there is power to be gained by working with it.
